

What every parent and grandparent needs to know!

Looks can be deceiving....
At first glance, it appears to be the bedroom of an average teenager. However, amidst the clutter and clothing scattered on the floor, school supplies on the desk and personal care products on the vanity, there are more than 150 items that can be clues that a young person may be involved in risky, dangerous and even illegal activities.

“Hidden in Plain Sight”

An Awareness Program for Parents and Adults

Wednesday, November 30, 2016
Hackettstown Medical Center
651 Willow Grove Street, Hackettstown, NJ
Gene C. Milton Conference Room
(Please enter via the rear West Wing Entrance)

Doors open at 6:30 pm, presentation begins at 7:00 pm

The exhibit is open to adults only

The audience is encouraged to explore and interact with items in the display which may be indicative that a teenager is involved in substance abuse, underage drinking and other risky behaviors. Participants will be enlightened, educated and astonished. Local law enforcement, individuals in recovery, parents and prevention specialists will be available for open discussion.

Panelists will include: NJ Drug Enforcement Agency, a parent, Hackettstown Medical Center Emergency Department, Hackettstown Police Department, Hackettstown Addiction and Counseling Center Counselor, the Warren County Coalition for Healthy and Safe Communities

To register, contact Mary Jo Harris at mharris@fgcwc.org or call 908-223-1985, Ext. 304
