

Child Study Team

In the event of an extended school closure, the CST will be working from home on a half day schedule. Email is the primary source of communication that the department will be utilizing. CST members will be monitoring their email regularly during the working day.

Parents/guardians who want to be contacted via an email different from what is in Realtime will have to use/provide that email.

Related Services

All related service providers will review and assess their caseloads upon returning to school to determine if additional time or sessions are warranted. In addition, speech therapists will be providing packets and/or online therapy activities for students to continue to develop their speech and language skills.

Counseling

Counselors will review their caseloads and current schedule, any missed sessions will be made up by either adding additional time to the remaining sessions or by adding additional sessions.
