Dear Great Meadows Central School Community,

I am both honored and excited to introduce myself as the new principal of Great Meadows Central School. My name is Alison Stiehl, and I am thrilled to be joining such a vibrant and dedicated community.

With 24 years of experience teaching students in grades K-5, I bring a wealth of knowledge and a deep passion for education to my new role. I grew up in Warren County and continue to live locally in Knowlton, NJ, where I reside with my three children: Zach, a senior at Warren County Technical School; Ella, who is entering 7th grade; and Taylor, who is a 3rd grader. Our family has always cherished the opportunities our local community provides, and I am excited to now contribute to it in a new capacity.

I earned both my undergraduate and graduate degrees from East Stroudsburg University, and I completed my administration certification at Centenary University. For the past 24 years, I have worked in Newton, NJ, where I had the privilege of teaching K-5 and serving as the site supervisor for after-school and summer programs. These experiences have equipped me with a broad perspective on fostering student growth and engaging with families and staff.

Outside of work, I enjoy gardening, photography, and spending quality time with my children. We love hiking, fishing, swimming, and generally enjoying the great outdoors.

As I step into this new role, I am eager to meet each of you and become actively involved in the Great Meadows School District community. I look forward to working together to support our students, foster their growth, and make our school a welcoming and inspiring place for everyone.

Thank you for the warm welcome, and I am excited about the journey ahead.

Warmest regards,

Alison Stiehl

Principal
